Joint Resolution

To designate March 1986, as "Music in Our Schools Month".

Mar. 19, 1986

[H.J. Res. 345]

Whereas the music programs in our Nation's schools fundamentally influence the lives of millions of Americans who participate in these programs;

Whereas music is a powerful aesthetic force that exalts the human spirit, transforms human experience, and enhances the quality of life;

Whereas music is one of the most glorious manifestations of our cultural heritage that should be transmitted to succeeding generations;

Whereas music embodies one of the major symbolic systems that make mankind uniquely human;

Whereas music provides a source of enjoyment and an outlet for creativity and self-expression for all Americans;

Whereas music directly affects the innermost feelings and responses of every child and plays an essential role in the education of this Nation's children;

Whereas the study of music uniquely contributes to the intellectual, emotional, and physical development of young people;

Whereas music provides a useful means for learning about other cultures, both within the United States and abroad;

Whereas the study of music and the other arts enhances student morale and improves the quality of the school environment;

Whereas national recognition and support will assist music educators in enriching the lives of all Americans, regardless of background, age, or musical talent; and

Whereas the observation of "Music in Our Schools Month" will provide a special opportunity for Americans to learn about and support the music programs in our Nation's schools: Now, therefore, be it
